Air Raid Instruction Cards Now Available

In accordance with the decision of the Federal Civil Defense Administration, the revised Civil Defense Air Raid Instruction cards are now being distributed by the Los Angeles County Civil Defense office, Howard Earl, County Disaster-Civil Defense Authority director announced today.

These 8½x11 inch cards each consist of one large instruction sheet, suitable for posting in a conspicuous place in the home or office, and three small cards, which may be cut out and carried in the wallet.

The signals, approved by both Federal and California State Civil Defense authorities, are as follows:

EVACUATION OR YELLOW ALERT: A steady blast of three to five minutes on sirens, whistles, horns or similar devices. This is the signal to evacuate according to the pre-arranged plan, which is now in the making. Do NOT use the telephone, but DO dial radio to 640 or 1240 kilocycles for detailed Conelrad instruction.

TAKE COVER OR RED ALERT: A wailing, rising and falling tone of sirens, or short blasts of whistles and horns, of three minutes duration. Upon hearing this signal, take cover in home shelters immediately. If no shelter is available, shut all outside doors and windows and take cover in the basement or an interior first-floor room. Select a place with maximum protection from flying glass. If outdoors, seek the best shelter available and protect the head and face from flying objects. Stay in the shelter until word is received either through Conelrad or the warden service.

If there is a bright, blinding flash of light, with no warning, drop to the ground or floor instantly. Roll under a table or a heavy piece of furniture, or along a solid wall or curb and protect the head and face.

"Additional Instruction Cards may be obtained through the County Disaster Warden, or by contacting this office, MUTUAL 9211, Station 4408," Earl pointed out. "Every home and every office should have several of these posted. Every person should carry one and have the instructions memorized for instant compliance," he concluded.

DEAR Editor... NEWS COVERAGE APPRECIATED
 Editor Torrance Press

During this season of the year we, the Recreation Department staff, pause and reflect on the good will we have enjoyed during the past year, and one of our most pleasant recollections is the association we have had with you and the staff of the Torrance Press.

Without your support and cooperation we could not have performed successfully in our job.

Your assistance in announcing and reporting our recreation program enabled us to reach the people and enjoy seeing the children and adults participate in our activities.

The staff of the Recreation Department wants to thank you all and wish you and the other members of the Press staff a very Merry Christmas and a Happy, Prosperous New Year.

Cordially,
 Torrance Recreation Department
